

MARKET REPORT March 2018 / 01

Hazelnuts

Facts/Market Data:

As we reach the half way point in the season, and enter the most dangerous time in the development of the 2018 crop, it is possibly a good time to look back over the season so far, and forward to the season to come.

In US Dollar price terms we have been on a fairly relaxed journey this season, where prices gradually fell by some 10%, recently returning to the prices apparent at the beginning of the season.

The early realization that the crop especially in Turkey was more than enough for the season, did not dissuade buyers from...
