

MARKET REPORT August 2018 / 02

Hazelnuts

Facts/Market Data:

If anything the market in Turkey is now paralysed after a long weekend of currency turmoil. Even though material is now dry and ready to go to the crackers, nobody wants to sell it, until either they get an announcement from the TMO of a lire 15 per kilo which is strongly rumoured (an increase of over 30% on last week's prevailing market price) or the current lire rate is reflected in the price paid (now flat lining at 6.90 to the USD, after going to 7.25 over the weekend).
