

MARKET REPORT January 2021 / 02

Hazelnut

Facts/Market Data:

Hazelnut market is currently calm, after a few weeks of concern about the 2021 crop. The temperatures on the Black Sea coast were too warm for the time of year, which led to fears that the bloom would develop too early, then get caught by a cold snap which could destroy much of the crop. In the event the temperatures dropped over last weekend, with snow apparent at altitudes above 300 metres. This stopped progression of the bloom development, and...
